“The 2012 Chardonnay Hyde Vineyard’s . . . characteristics are impressive. This medium to full-bodied, layered, rich beauty should drink well for several years.”

Chardonnay 2014, 91 points

“Made from the Robert Yong clone of Chardonnay, Mira’s 2014 Chardonnay has a light gold color and beautiful notes of delicate white peach, honeysuckle and fruit with some crushed rock minerality in the background. Fresh, lively and medium to full-bodied, but displaying lots of complexity and class, this is a somewhat understated but intense style of wine that reflects terrific winemaking. Moreover, it is a great value. Drink it over the next 4-5 years.”
